Club Committee Meetings

President Graeme is an innovator. He has a vision for a Club that functions well and allows us to get the most done in the most effective manner. Last week's Committee Meeting working lunch was a great example – and I am certain will bear fruit as we work over the next month.

The members worked and chatted and planned in a very good Monthly Committee meeting luncheon.

I have minutes from the New Generations Committee and welcome minutes from other committees.

Marketing and Membership Seminar: Keynote speakers attract Rotarians.

Seats are filling fast, so please register today for the Membership and Marketing seminar on 15 August at Cato Hall, Wesley College, 577 St Kilda Road, Melbourne 9 am - 3.30 pm. A light lunch will be provided.

You will enjoy an outstanding program including:

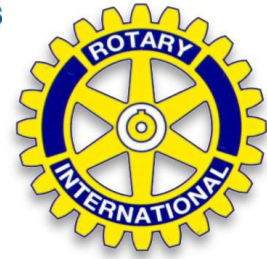

HELEN RAZER former ABC radio journalist (and The Age Contributor) who has done wonders for the Country Women's Association. Helen will talk about Rotary's relevance in the new millennium

PDG ANN WHITE with an awe inspiring district record of growing new clubs, Ann will discuss the resuscitation of clubs whose membership is falling behind

AMANDA SMITH General Manager United Way Melbourne. Amanda has a wealth of experience in direct response and general advertising with some of the Australia's most respected Advertising Agencies and national brands has stood her in good stead in her present role in the not for profit arena

BRYCE IVES is a freelance Theatre Director and Media Producer. He is currently employed as the Coordinator of the Heywire Program, a flagship community project of the ABC which engages young media makers across Australia. Heywire produces stories for ABC Radio, ABC TV and online, and stages a yearly youth issues forum

At this seminar you will be part of a worldwide launch of a new media promotion - bring your mobile phone!
